

Modern Languages for Life and Work Award

The Modern Languages for Life and Work Award (SCQF level 4) provides learners with the opportunity to develop language skills in combination with employability skills while also being able to follow their own interests in a cultural context. Learners will develop language skills in French that they can apply in life and work.

The main purpose of this Award is to study French in practical and relevant contexts for life and work, and identify, develop and demonstrate employability skills.

This Award has three Units:

Modern Languages for Work Purposes Unit

The purpose of this Unit is to provide learners with the opportunity to develop basic skills in talking and reading needed to communicate in any vocational context using French. It encourages learners to reflect on skills required for employability.

Building Own Employability Skills Unit

The purpose of this Unit is to provide learners with the opportunity to acquire the skills needed in order to gain employment. These skills include finding out about job opportunities and employers, and the skills needed to apply for a job.

Modern Languages for Life Unit

The purpose of this Unit is to develop basic skills in listening and talking in practical and relevant contexts using French. Learners explore the culture and everyday life in countries where the modern language is used.

Entry Requirements :

This course is equally available to those who have studied either French or Spanish.
