

Information Systems Exercises

- 1 What do the letters HTML stand for?
- 2 What is HTML used for?
- 3 Describe 3 things that should be considered when creating a website.
- 4 What is a primary key?
- 5 Name 4 types of field that can be placed in a database.
- 6 A database about cars has fields containing make, model, colour and price.
  - (a) How could a list of all the yellow cars be produced?
  - (b) How could a list of all the cars from most expensive to least expensive be produced?
  - (c) How could a list of all the Volkswagen Fox's be produced?
- 7 Name and describe 3 input devices?
- 8 Name and describe 3 output devices?
- 9 Put the following measures of storage capacity in order smallest to largest.
Gigabyte, byte, kilobyte, bit, terabyte, megabyte
- 10 Internet task – What is an embedded computer, give 4 examples?
- 11 What is a hotspot on a web page?
- 12 In information systems what is meant by the terms data validation and data verification?